

An Agreement Between
Columbia International University and AWM gGmbH

Columbia International University (CIU) and the AWM gGmbH (AWM) are independent legal organizations, each governed by its own board of directors. The two organizations share the mutual goal of providing internationally recognized and accredited biblical/theological education along with ministry formation for the primary purpose of equipping those who engage in cross-cultural ministry.

The AWM is a legal entity created by the Arbeitsgemeinschaft Evangelikaler Missionen (AEM), Germany, and underwritten by the AEM Germany, the AEM Switzerland and the Evangelische

CU is responsible to insure the quality of the work.

[REDACTED]

Article 4

[REDACTED]

The AWM Rector consults with the CIL Director

Article 7

AWM owns and operates an academic library collection and facility, appropriate information technology and other learning resources

[Redacted signature area]

[Handwritten signature] 9/10/2021

[Handwritten signature] 12. Sept. 2021
Tobias Menges, Dean, Akademie für Weltmission

[Handwritten signature] 8/10/21
Mark Smith, President, Columbia Int'l University

[Handwritten signature] Aug. 1 2021
James Lanpher, President, Columbia Int'l University
Date